XXVII DOMENICA DEL TEMPO ORDINARIO

ALL'INIZIO DIO LI CREÒ MASCHIO E FEMMINA

IN questa Domenica la Parola di Dio ci consegna una meravigliosa catechesi sulla famiglia e sull'amore: è un messaggio che bisogna comprendere profondamente per non travisarlo o comprometterlo con le situazioni in cui ci troviamo nella società contemporanea. Di fronte ai farisei che fondano le loro argomentazioni affidandosi al precetto di Mosè, Gesù spiega che il significato dell'essere famiglia non si basa essenzialmente su un contratto, deve essere fatto risalire al progetto creativo di Dio (Vangelo). Adamo infatti riceve da Dio un aiuto corrispondente a lui: cioè una persona da amare e non qualcosa di cui semplicemente servirsi (I Lettura). Così facendo egli dichiara che l'amore e l'unione familiare hanno origine in Dio e da Dio. Solo mantenendo il suo primato nella vita umana, è possibile realizzare la pienezza dell'amore e costruire la famiglia su basi che non potranno sgretolarsi. Diversamente la durezza del cuore umano troverà sempre qualche appiglio per disintegrare ciò che credeva aver costruito, come quella casa costruita sulla sabbia, che al primo vento contrario rischia di distruggersi (Cfr. Mt 7,26-27). Tiberio Cantaboni

27TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

GIVEN THE INCREASINGLY secular times in which we live, one can imagine how fragile conversations centered on marriage and family can be. That said, as Catholics, we are called to humbly and lovingly share God's teachings and reinforce our faith's mission in a world not always open to or familiar with the Good News. Since the dawning of creation, God designed man and woman to both complement and unite with one another, bearing children as fruits of their love. In essence, two reciprocal halves are to become whole and combine to create new blessings. In today's Gospel Jesus states clearly that marriage is to be an eternal bond between a man and a woman, with a loving and committed heart shared by both spouses. Any experience outside of this context or any human dissolution of this union, we can deduce, contravenes the will of God. While marriage is designed to be unitive, Jesus illustrates its procreative nature when he embraces the children. His blessing and assurance of their entry into heaven invite us to equally welcome them as gifts of God. While being sensitive and supportive to those in difficult situations, let us wholeheartedly strive to follow God's will for marriage and family, united as Jesus unites with his bride, the Church.

Living in the Word

'Hear the Word of God and Do It'

What message do I communicate to others by my way of living, patterns of thought and speech, or modes of behaviour? Out of concern for reputation or fear of rebuke, do I stay silent when circumstances require that I speak the truth? The Holy Spirit has been given that we might be witnesses. Let us call upon him to provide us with the ability to do so and thus put into practice the Word of God. (Archbishop Smith, Pastoral Letter, September 14, 2017) caedm.ca/letter

The XV Ordinary General Assembly of the Synod of Bishops-

is now under way in Rome, and the focus is "Youth, faith and vocational discernment." In addition to bishops from around the world, many young adults are participating. In his opening address to the synod, Pope Francis offered some succinct insight to the issues faced by young Catholics: "The path of preparation for this moment has highlighted a Church that needs to listen, including those young people who often do not feel understood by the Church in their originality and therefore not accepted for who they really are, and sometimes even rejected. Let us pray for the Synod.
