XXIV DOMENICA DEL TEMPO ORDINARIO

IL VERO MESSIA E' UN SERVO SOFFERENTE

OGGI Gesù ci rivela quale Messia egli sia venuto ad incarnare. Ce lo fa comprendere quando ammonisce severamente Pietro e gli altri apostoli di non affermare di lui: «Tu sei il Cristo!» (Vangelo). Certamente aveva compreso che nei loro animi albergava, quale idea di Messia, quella di un liberatore che avrebbe riscattato Israele con la forza e la spada. Il messianismo di Gesù è differente. Esso coincide con l'esperienza del servo sofferente sulle cui labbra Isaia pone queste parole: «Ho presentato il mio dorso ai flagellatori, le mie guance a coloro che mi strappavano la barba; non ho sottratto la faccia agli insulti e agli sputi» (I Lettura). È questi il nostro Messia che con la sua sofferenza ha redento l'umanità prendendo su di sé i peccati del mondo. Anche noi siamo chiamati, desiderando imitarlo, ad amare e a servire i nostri fratelli «pagando di persona» come ha fatto lui. In che modo? Necessariamente con un sacrificio cruento come il suo? Forse questo no, ma sicuramente offrendo ai fratelli tutta quella carità e vicinanza solidale che ha origine dal sacrificio del Signore, realizzando quelle «opere» che danno concretezza e tangibilità alla nostra fede (II Lettura).

24TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

JESUS AND HIS disciples set out for the villages of Caesarea in Philippi. These journeys would not have been easy by our modern standards. Dusty, uneven terrain, hot and all on foot. Yet that is when he asked his disciples: "Who do people say that I am?". Walking with Christ is a spiritual journey fed by prayer, Scripture and the Eucharist. However, it is revealed by works. Jesus does not ask us to arrive at our destination before we begin doing acts of mercy. The Christian journey is always about imperfect people bringing Christ to an imperfect world, now, through him. When your acts of mercy defend the unborn, the sick, the dying or marriage, the cost of this discipleship can be high. It can be lonely and overwhelming. God's plan is not that we do this in our own strength. He is able to do within us, Whatever he has called us to do, whether to serve, to speak the truth, or to stand and defend. Let the Mass today be your prayerful next step; then give God glory and praise as you boldly proclaim the Messiah in our broken world.

Living in the Word

St. John writes these beautiful words at the beginning of his first letter: "We declare to you what was from the beginning, what we have heard, what we have seen with our eyes, what we have looked at and touched with our hands, concerning the word of life—
this life was revealed, and we have seen it and testify to it, and declare to you the eternal life that was with the Father and was revealed to us— we declare to you what we have seen and heard so that you also may have fellowship with us; and truly our fellowship is with the Father and with his Son Jesus Christ. We are writing these things so that our joy may be complete." (1 John 1:1-
4) (Archbishop Smith, Pastoral Letter, September 14, 2017)

IL CATECHISMO – L'AVVISO DI PREPARAZIONE SACRAMENTALE:

Si prega di notare che inizieranno le classi di preparazione per la Prima Comunione e Cresima il 13 Gennaio 2019. Noi incoraggiamo tutti i genitori con bambini che desiderano ricevere la loro prima Comunione e Cresima di registrarli. La parrocchia offre anche scuole di catechismo per i bambini di età compresa tra 4 – 6. Si prega di telefonare l'ufficio parrocchiale: (780) 422-8304. Potete trovare il "modulo" nel Sito e nella Chiesa.

CATECHISM – SACRAMENTAL PREPARATION NOTICE:

Please note we will be starting our Pre-school, First Holy Communion and Confirmation Preparation classes beginning on Sunday, January 13th, 2019 at 9:20 am sharp. We have a very good reputation for preparing our children for these precious sacraments, and we encourage all parents with children wishing to receive their First Holy Communion and Confirmation to register. The parish is also offering pre-school catechism classes for children between the ages of 4 – 6 years. The pre-school classes will run at the same time as the sacramental preparation classes. To register your children please telephone the office at (780) 422-8304. Application forms are available in our parish website and in Church. The cost for the programs are as follows:

Pre-School	$25.00
First Holy Communion	$35.00
Confirmation	$45.00
